The Rutland Hymn

1. To Thee, O Lord, we give our praises,
For Rutland, let us sing our Psalms
For all the beauty that surrounds us,
From rolling hills to fertile farms.

Lord, for all your beauteous bounty
Much in Little let us sing
Thanks for Rutland, the sec-ret county,
To you dear Lord, our gracious King.

2. For country lanes and wooded hill side,
Rivers running clear and free,
For blue bell woods and way marked pathways,
Our loud hosannas rise to thee.

3. From grass cut maze to Yew tree columns,
Your gracious favours you bestow
On each of us, your faithful servants,
your creation here below.

4. For slender spires and country churchyards,
Village homes and mansions grand,
We thank you Lord for all your blessings,
The proudest county in the land.

*Words: Joyce Lucas
Music: Neville Favell*

The Rutland Choral Society rehearses on Monday evenings (7:30-9:00pm) in the Hall at the Methodist Church in Northgate, Oakham. New members are always welcome - please speak to a member of the choir, or contact Sheila Kitcheman on 01572 720331, or just come along on a Monday night.

Our concert next term is on Saturday 1 April at All Saints Oakham.

With grateful thanks to the All Saints Concert Society for their help in promoting tonight's concert, and to the Vicar and Churchwardens of All Saints' Church for their welcome and use of the church.

WE ARE MACMILLAN. CANCER SUPPORT

What we do

No one should face cancer alone. So when you need someone to turn to, we're here. Right from the moment you're diagnosed, through your treatment and beyond, we're a constant source of support, giving you the energy and inspiration to help you take back control of your life, and feel more like yourself again.

Our ambition

Macmillan's ambition is to reach and improve the lives of everyone living with cancer and to inspire millions of others to do the same.

There are 2.5 million people living with cancer in the UK today, and as more people live longer with their cancer, this number is set to grow to 4 million by 2030. We want to make sure we can provide support to everyone who needs it, to help people affected by cancer feel more in control of their lives.

How we work

We're here for you. We produce independent, expert, up-to-date information to meet the information needs of people affected by cancer. We want to make sure we can provide the right support at the right time to everyone who needs it.

Understanding the evidence

Macmillan's research helps us, and others, understand the needs, numbers and experiences of people affected by cancer, to develop and influence better care and services.

We make change happen

We find out what matters to people affected by cancer, and fight for the best deal. We help shape policies and work with the government to improve lives.

Training courses

Macmillan offers a range of free courses, workshops and e-learning for people affected by cancer, including carers, family members, volunteers and community members.

Find out more at www.macmillan.org.uk

There will be a collection in aid of Macmillan at the end of the concert tonight, and we ask you to support it generously.
